INTERESTING SUNDAY

SCHOOL MEETINGS.

Held Saturday Night and Sunday By the Visiting Sunday School Workers.

Quite a large audience was present on Saturday night at the Presbyterian church on the occasion of the visit of the International Sunday School workers who are touring the country.

The meeting was opened with a vocal selection by Prof. Excell. He enjoys a great reputation as a singer but unfortunately he was suffering from a severe cold and could not do himself justice.

He was followed by Marion Lawrence, one of the visitors, who gave a synopsis of their trip. He said they had been out about seven weeks, during which time they had visited Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas. From El Paso they were going to New Mexico, Arizona, southern and northern California, and back by the northern route. The object of the trip was to stimulate Sunday school work all over the country by attending the principal conventions and through the state organizations perfect the Sunday school methods. Other members of the party spoke on the subject of Sunday school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamill and Prof. Excell remained over Sunday in El Paso, while the others continued their trip in order to keep their engagements in Albuquerque. Mrs. Hamill made a talk to the children at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and had a conference with the primary teachers relative to their work. Prof. Hamill gave a short talk at 4 o'clock at the same place on the subject of teachers' privileges.

DIED.

Domingo Manquera, aged 68 years, died at 712 South Stanton street yesterday, and was buried in Concordia cemetery.

Charles Frederick Hardy, aged 40 years, died yesterday on South El Paso street. He was a Canadian by birth, but lived in Minneapolis, where he worked as a train dispatcher. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for some time, and had been traveling through the Southwest in search of health. He was accompanied by his wife and she is still here with the body waiting for instructions from his relatives. They came up from the City of Mexico a week ago.

Miss Jessie Forbes, aged 28, died in this city Saturday night. She was accompanied here by her parents and cousin about two weeks ago. She was suffering from injuries sustained by falling from a horse and her death was the result. The relatives left with the body last night for their home in Rockford, Illinois.

MR. GREY'S ASSETS AFTER THE CYCLONE.

From Galveston News. Wills Point, Texas.—In Saturday's evening mail Mr. Eph Gray, whose house was entirely destroyed by the cyclone on the 9th, received a letter which was in a trunk in his house on that fatal day. A short note inclosed stated that the letter had been picked up by the sender, a Mr. Fletcher, two miles north of Miller Grove, in Hopkins county.

Aside from the effects of the water, the letter was none the worse for its long trip through the air. A piece of the trunk in which the letter had been, along with wearing apparel, was found about three hundred yards from the spot on which his house stood. These two fragments are all so far heard from of the trunk and its contents. This house was literally swept off the face of the earth. All of Mr. Grey's household effects so far recovered, or identified, could be hauled off in a wheelbarrow, and yet his wife and child who were in the house at the time, escaped alive, although severely injured.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching, or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. For sale by H. Feist, Campbell & Grayson.

FINEST OPAL IN THE WORLD FOR EDWARD.

London.—Maurice Lyons, a lawyer of Queensland, intends to give King Edward what is believed to be the largest and finest opal in the world. It is estimated to be worth upwards of £50,000, and Mr. Lyons desires that it should be set in the king's regalia of the Australian federation. It is oval in shape, two inches long and an inch and a half deep and weighs 250 karats. When found in Queensland it was an inch longer but it was broken in the process of removal.

The British house of commons has 630 members each representing 6000 people and 180 square miles of territory. ### HAS LIVE EXPERIENCE

Old Li Hung Chang Had a Graft in on the Graphite Mines, and Saved the Day.

"If it hadn't been for Li Hung Chang my chance of getting out of China would have been mighty poor," said William Adams as he sat in the Hotel Sheldon lobby last evening. "I was 1500 miles up in the interior in the Sze Chiang province when the Pekin trouble began. The company I was with, the Eastern Pioneer Co., held the mining rights for 60,000 square miles in Sze Chiang, including a lot of the richest graphite properties in the world. Li Hung Chang had cast an anchor to windward by retaining one-fourth of the capital stock of the company when the concession was granted, so he could well afford to take an interest in the mines.

"We had known for a year that there was likely to be trouble by the way members of the Long Knife society were acting. They finally got together a mob of a thousand or so and tried to stop our annual shipment from Kiang. There were as many women in the mob as there were men and the women were very considerably pushed to the front, the crowd seeming to feel sure that Americans would not touch them. We got our shipment out after dark having first fooled the mob by starting a decoy pack train down another road. We never heard of the decoy train again.

"We had many evidences like this that the people who were perfectly friendly a year before had come to be very much on edge and we stuck to the mines as long as possible, not being able to do much of anything else. Then one day the Chinese local authorities seemed to be poked up by a higher power. One hundred Chinese soldiers were sent to the mine as our escort and we were assured of safe conduct to the coast."

Mr. Adams was asked for his views as to Mark Twain's flare-up with the missionaries.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PACK OF CARDS.

The Pack Was Said By a British Soldier to Serve Him as a Bible, Prayer Book, and Almanac.

Would you please send me the "Biblical History of a Pack of Cards," for instance: The four kings represent the four kings in the Bible, the four queens representing those in the Bible, etc.

According to the story, which appeared at least as early as 1773, Richard Lane, a private in the Forty-second Foot, the "Black Watch," of the British army, was brought before the mayor (lord provost) of Glasgow, charged with playing cards during divine service. He said that he had no Bible or prayer book, and was using his pack of cards instead of the more regular book. He was directed to explain what he meant, and answered: "When I see the ace, it reminds me of the one God; the deuce recalls the father and the son; the tray, the three persons of the Trinity. The four spot reminds me of the four evangelists; the five, of the five wise virgins; the six, of the days of creation, and the seven, of the seventh day, the Sabbath; the eight recalls the righteous persons in the ark; the nine, the ungrateful lepers; the ten, the commandments. The king suggests the King of Heaven; the queen, the Queen of Sheba who sought wisdom from Solomon. The knave—" here he hesitated, but being urged went on: "The knave stands for the constable who arrested me."

The mayor interrupted to remark that the constable seemed to have been a fool, even though not a knave. The soldier continued: "There are 365 pips in the pack, which recall the days of the year; fifty-two cards, one for each week; twelve face cards, one for each month; and the thirteen tricks represent the number of weeks in a quarter. Thus the pack of cards serves as a Bible, a prayer book, and an almanac.—New York Sun.

Williams, Ariz.

Special to The Herald.

WILLIAMS, Ariz., April 1.—The last four days of March have been quite stormy, snowing most of the time, though melting quite rapidly, verifying the old adage, "Comes in like a lamb, goes out like a lion."

The scheme between Dr. E. E. Perrin and the Santa Fe Railway company, aided by people in the Salt river valley, "who think the Colorado river and all other streams in northern Arizona empty into the Salt river," has fallen through. Dr. Perrin owns about 25,000 acres, none of which is timbered sufficiently for merchant use. The Santa Fe Pacific owns every even section along the road in Arizona and New Mexico, extending seven miles on each side of the track, a portion of which is timbered heavily. They were at the point of sale to the government for $3 per acre. Dr. Perrin wished to sell all of his, while the railroad company only cared to sell the land not timbered. A delegation was sent to Washington from this county. J. C. Phelan, chairman of the board of supervisors from this city, and two others from Flagstaff, they met Attorney E. S. Clark, of Flagstaff, who was in Washington on legal business, and to Mr. Clark the principal of the credit is due for defeating the sale and the subsequent forcing of all cattle, horses and sheep out of northern Arizona as it was stated the government intended making the northern part of Arizona a gigantic reserve. Mr. Clarke deserves the lifelong gratitude of every citizen in this section of the territory for protecting their interests and of the government for preventing their buying over a million acres of worthless lands that had been misrepresented to them as being valuable timber lands.

In anticipation of this sale the Santa Fe has had seven corps of surveyors working in the fields north of here since last September preparing for this sale. Mr. W. O. Owens, of Utah, has also been inspecting the work for the government so that in case the deal went through that much would be ready to turn over without delay.

The Eastern Star mine, owned by Flagstaff parties, of which J. W. Francis is principal shareholder, has been bonded to a Duluth, Minn., syndicate through the efforts of a Mr. Barbour of Chicago, a man of twenty years' experience in mining. This property gives great promise, and a copper mine being fifty-nine miles north of Williams and one and one-half mile from the end of the Santa Fe and Grand Canon railway and some ten miles from the rim of the Grand Canon.

Immediately below the rim something like 2,000 feet, there is a very extensive rich vein of copper in sight, the syndicate will sink a shaft to this body and work it for all it is worth. This property is expected to be as large a producer as the Jerome mine as son as sufficient work is done to enable them to work to advantage. Perhaps two years will be required to run enough drifts to work a large body of men. A car of surface ore from the Eastern Star has assayed 30 per cent.

The Anita Mining company, whose principal owners are W. B. and J. H. Page, of Rutland, Vt., will also work this promising copper property, on the same plans as the Eastern Star, commencing within the next month. They have the advantage of being directly on the S. F. & G. C. road, 47 miles north of Williams.

Mr. Barbour has about completed arrangements for buying the smelter erected by Lombard, Goode & Co., some three years ago, but has never seen operated. It has a capacity of 100 tons daily, and will be able to save a heavy expense in shipping the untreated ores.

SALISBURY'S EARLY RETIREMENT FROM THE PREMIERSHIP IS BEING DISCUSSED.

LONDON, April 1.—The condition of Lord Salisbury was much improved at noon. His speedy recovery is predicted by physicians.

LONDON, April 1.—While Salisbury's condition continues favorable this afternoon, his early retirement from the premiership is being openly discussed.

CUDAHY DENIES THAT THERE IS A PLAN ON FOOT TO CONTROL PACIFIC FISH BUSINESS.

CHICAGO, April 1.—John Cudahy declares that there is absolutely no foundation for the report that a thirty million dollar corporation is being formed to control the Pacific coast fish business.

The Alaska Packers' association, of which he is president, will not dispose of its holdings under any circumstances.

INTELLIGENT SEALS.

Little Leo (after visiting the Zoo)—"Say, Pop, can you tell me why seals eat fish on Friday?" Hogan. (In surprise)—"Sure, they don't, do they?"

Little Leo—"They certainly do." Hogan—"Well, Ol' always heard that they wor'th more intelligent as all animals, an' now Ol' believe it."—Puck.

See that you got the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. H. Feist, Campbell & Grayson.
